

College of Education and College of Public Health
Institute for Evidence-Based Health Professions Education

Seminar Series

October 1

What do I do when there is no good evidence?

Mark Ebell, MD, MS- Associate Professor, Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics
College of Public Health

Steven Budsberg, DVM, MS, DACVS- Professor Department of Small Animal Medicine and Surgery
College of Veterinary Medicine

Coverdell Building- Room 175

October 22

Curriculum Integration in Health Professions Education: The MCG/UGA Medical Partnership Example

W. Scott Richardson, MD - Professor and Campus Associate Dean for Curriculum
MCG/UGA Medical Partnership

Interim Medical Partnership Building
279 Williams Street- Ground Floor Classroom

December 3

Case-Based E-Learning in Health Professions Education: A middle ground between didactic and problem-based learning

Ikseon Choi, PhD- Associate Professor of Learning, Design, & Technology
Department of Educational Psychology and Instructional Technology
College of Education

Coverdell Building- Room 175

All seminars will be held from 11:00 - 12:00

The Institute for Evidence-Based Health Professions Education is a partnership involving faculty from the College of Education (COE), the College of Public Health (CPH) and other UGA units who study, develop and provide evidence-based education for health professionals.

For further information, contact the Co-directors,
Mark Ebell (ebell@uga.edu) or Ronald Cervero (rcervero@uga.edu).